THE DAILY INDEPENDENT.

VOL. 4. NO. 284 MONESSEN, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1906. SIX CENTS THE WEEK

WILLIAM T. DOM OF GREENSBURG

In this issue of the Daily Independent we do not hesitate in presenting to the voters of Monessen and vicinity the name of William T. Dom, Jr., for District Attorney of Westmoreland county.

Mr. Dom ranks among the best attorneys practicing at the Westmoreland county bar at Greensburg. He was born and raised in Greensburg and is now and always has been a Republican, working at all times for the best interests of the party.

Mr. Dom has practiced law for the past ten years. He is a self-made man. His education, like many other poor boy's, was obtained after many trials and difficulties, many obstacles being swept aside by a persistent determination to reach his goal.

Besides serving his party well and faithful, Mr. Dom served his country well and faithful. He was among the first to advance one step at Gettysburg on that eventful day when Col. Hawkins, of the Famous Tenth Regiment asked that body of men if they would heed the call of President William McKinley and enlist to battle with the regulars against the Spaniards. He crossed the continent to Frisco. He sailed the broad Pacific to the disease breeding Phillipine Islands and fought in the front ranks with his comrades. It was a glorious victory.

Mr Dom comes before you asking that you consider him at the polls tomorrow. He is in every way qualified to fill the office. His affiable manner, his qualifications and the clean canvass he has made makes him a strong candidate and Monessen will not go wrong in supporting him for the high office to which he aspires. It

FIRST NATIONAL WILL REMOVE

And Tomorrow Morning Will be in New Quarters Ready for Business.

This evening after closing hours the First National Bank will remove from the present quarters at the corner of Donner avenue and Eighth street, to the handsome new brick building at the corner of Sixth street, just opposite the P. & L. E. station.

The work of removing will be done this afternoon and evening and tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the bank will throw open its doors at the new home ready for business. The public will be courteously welcomed and cordially treated.

The First National Bank has one of the best banking rooms of any town in the county the size of Monessen. The building is a three story brick, with banking rooms and post office on the first floor and flats on the second and third stories and is centrally located.

Next Saturday a reception will be given to the public and everybody will be made welcome and shown through the new building in its completeness.

Completes Water Line.

The water pipe line being constructed for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has been completed from the chief source of water supply, Indian creek to the main line of the railroad, near Greensburg. The last work done on it in this section was the completion of the reservoir at South Connellsville, which has a capacity of six and a half million gallons of water. Before the end of the week water will flow through the big pipes to feed the engines of the railroad company.

PRIMARIES TOMORROW SITUATION WAXING WARM

Nevin A. Court Still Leads as Popular Candidate for District Attorney.

NEVIN A. CORT.

The office of District Attorney is one of the most important official agencies of the county in the administration of the Government and the execution of our laws. For that reason public opinion has been centered on Nevin A. Cort, of Mt. Pleasant, to be the next incumbent of that office. Should the Republican party of Westmoreland county nominate Mr. Cort for district attorney, he will be elected in November and when elected will be master of the situation. Cort will be the official representative of the people. It will not be any person or persons who have pushed him forward in order to further their own political interests. He stands on his merits as a man and a practitioner at the Westmoreland bar and every voter in the county who casts a ballot for him tomorrow afternoon has done his duty as a good Republican and an upright American citizen.

Mr. Cort is to be admired for the honest fight he has made. He started in the race without an endorsement of any political faction or combination and has made a steady canvass among the voters. As the time for the primaries draws near Cort becomes stronger and the general opinion throughout the county is that he will be nominated tomorrow afternoon.

Nevin A. Cort is a young man who has been thoroughly trained in law and the science of goverment—a self-made, mentally strong and morally reliant young American. Such a man is able and well qualified to fully realize the grave responsibilities he assumes when he takes the oath of office as District Attorney of Westmoreland county. He was born and raised near Mt. Pleasant, this county, one of the Republican strongholds of the county, and he comes before us with the solid endorsement or that community which is a high testimonial of his worth as a man and an attorney.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write. I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

SHE SAVED THE BOWERIE

(Original.)

While spending a summer on Great South bay, which lies between Long Island and Fire Island, I hired an old fisherman to take me out in his boat. He was a queer character and told some stories about the early history of Long Island that interested me. He had lived in the same location all his life, and his father, grandfather and great-grandfather before him.

Day after day he sat in the stern with one brown hand on the tiller, the other on the main sheet, reeling off yarns as his little sloop reeled off knots. This is one of them.

'There was a time when piratin' was a much more respectable trade than it is now, and right here the pirates used to come in through the inlets and bury their plunder. They bought a lot o' provisions and such things as they needed, and as they was good pay what few people there was about in them days was very glad to trade with 'em—that is, when they wasn't bent on murder and robbery. One of our family who knowed how to write writ down a good many things in a blank book, and there was a lot in it about the pirates. That's how I got what I'm goin' to tell you.

"One o' the farmers, an old Dutchman, had a farm, or a bowerie, as he called it, about a mile from the house my ancestors built, only nearer the bay. One fall a niece of his'n—I don't remember her name, except the first name was Katrina—come out here from New York to visit her uncle's family. Bein' town bred, she was a leetle too good for the folks about here; in fact, my ancestor, the writer, describes her as a high stepper. She must 'a' been one o' them 'Vans that has since considered theirselves the big toads in the New York puddle. Anyway, Katrina, though her uncle tried hard to give her a good time, turned up her purty nose at the farmer people. I don't exactly know why seein' that tillin' o' the soil is as respectable as tradin' in the skins o' wild animals, which her people did.

'Howsomedever, her uncle got up a big dance for her on his bowerie. I think they had to do the dancin' in the barn, seein' there warn't no other place big enough. Katrina, she jist went around with her nose in the air and wouldn't hev no attention from none o' the young farmers, and her uncle come up to her and tole her that she was too high and mighty for the simple folk about here and he'd send her home the next day.

"All of a suddent there was a barkin' o' the dogs and a hollerin' o' the nigger slaves outside, and in another moment in comes a lot o' men in sailor tog, with cutlasses, and one o' 'em with a pair o' mustaches a foot long cries out.

"'All you men git out o' here onless you want to walk a plank from the roof laid over the well!'

"They was pirates that had come in at the inlet and come ashore for amusement and plunder. The farmer men got out mighty quick except the fiddlers, for the chief ordered 'em back. He must 'a' been the cap'n. Then the pirates tole the fiddlers to play, and goin' up to the women, each cutthroat chose a pardner and swung her off into the dance. The cap'n he spied Katrina settin' dignified and haughty, and when he seen her so the story goes—he made a step aft and put his hand up to his fore'ead like they does in the theater and gasps. Katrina see the cap'n and set bolt upright as though he warn't nothin' to her. Then he walks up to her, sort o' cringin' like, and when he gits where she was he sweeps the floor with his hat and says somep'n' to her so low that nobody couldn't hear it, and she says somep'n' to him, and he says somep'n' more to her, and they kept it up awhile, then she gits up, and he leads her out to dance.

"The chronologer says that they was the highest steppin' pair that ever paced through a dance in the colony, the man and the gal bein' both blue bloods sure. The other women forgot their fright and danced like country jakes which they was only they made sneerin' remarks about Katrina sayin' that now she'd got a pirate they hoped she was satisfied. They wondered what the two had been talkin' about, but Katrina didn't let on. She jist walked through the dance as poker like as ever, and the cap'n was as cringin' before her as if she'd been the queen of England. She didn't seem to fear him, and she didn't say nothin' to him. She jist danced as if she was walkin' around with a yaller dog.

"There was jist one dance. Then the cap'n give a signal to leave. The men looked kind o' hard at him and wasn't goin' to go. The cap'n walks up to one on 'em and was bringin' his cutlass down on him when the feller dug out, and the rest follered. The cap'n he went last, and before he did he turned and give Katrina one look. My scribblin' ancestor says it was like the look a man might give his sweetheart jist before he was goin' to be swung off.

"And that was the next thing that happened to the cap'n. A man o' war was watchin' for him outside and scooped the whole gang. It turned out that he had been a New York beau, a lover of Katrina's she'd refused, and he'd concluded to live down the blow to them sensitive feelin's o' his'n by turnin' pirate. When he went up to Katrina and asked her to dance she agreed for one dance if he'd promise to git out without taken the valyables or harmin' any one. He promised, and she saved everything and everybody.

"It's gittin' a leetle dirty lookin' out there. I guess we'd better go about, and I'll put you ashore."

RUSSELL THORNE.

"The Queen of Sicily."

Syracuse calls itself the capital of the south, but it has no cause to dispute pride of place with Palermo. The metropolitan city is superior in population, wealth and much else, but it is deficient in what its ancient and glorious rival has in such abundance. For Syracuse has the supreme charm of Greece in a way that no other city except Athens has. Not even in Corinth, nowhere in Hellas from Messana or Sparta in the south to Thebes in the north, is there any Hellenic town to compare with "the queen of Sicily." As a sanctuary Delphi is far more impressive than anything in Sicily, as a national meeting place Olympia has no rival, but nowhere except at Athens is a Greek city to be seen today which has the proud record of the marvelous metropolis of the Sicilian Greeks, a city as great in power and wealth and beauty as Athens herself, and victor at last in the long and fatal rivalry which indirectly involved the passing of the Hellenistic dominion of all the lands washed by the Ionian and Mediterranean seas.—Century.

Barefooted Waiting Maids in Japan.

Unless there are ladies among the guests the wife and daughters of the host do not appear at dinner in Japan. Before the meal begins it is customary for them to bring small cups of tea and dainty confectionery, when they take their survey of the party. If gentlemen only are present the Japanese hostess disappears after the greeting is over and does not return until the guests are taking their departure. At a signal from the host barefooted waiting maids, dressed in graceful and prettily tinted kimonos, bring in lacquer trays, bearing tiny covered bowls. Before setting the trays on the table the maids sink gracefully to their knees and bend forward till their foreheads touch the floor. Then they serve dinner which is of several courses.—Smith's Weekly.

A Lively Paper Cutter.

Here is a little story which the English papers tell and any one is at liberty to believe if he will. No affidavits go with it. When Lord Dufferin was viceroy of India the maharajah of Indor paid him a visit and asked as a memento an ivory paper cutter belonging to Lord Dufferin. He consented, he Indian left, and the viceroy never saw him until some months later when the maharajah introduced a fine young elephant into the room. A pile of newspapers lay at Lord Dufferin's side. The animal went up to them cut them neatly with his tusks, which had been purposely sharpened, and laid them in a neat heap on the floor, ready for perusal.

Great Britain's Rainfall.

Rainfall is a condition which has much to do with our health. A wet district with a good deal of subsoil water, making houses damp, is a locality in which rheumatism and consumption are likely to prevail. Over England and Wales the average yearly rainfall is about thirty four inches, in Scotland it reaches forty six inches and in Ireland about thirty eight inches. Possibly the wettest parts of Britain are in Cumberland, where the rainfall may attain 150 inches per year. One inch of rain on one acre of ground means a hundred tons of water.—London Graphic.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Simpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute Kidney trouble. Sold by The Avenue Drug Store.

RENT PAYS FOR LAND.

Fertile Sections of the Southwest, Where Land Sells for $15 and Rents for $2 per Acre.

One of the remarkable things about Eastern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana is the fact that cleared land rents for $5 per acre cash, and can be bought for $7 50 to $15 per acre. It costs from $6 to $10 an acre to clear it. Other improvements necessary are slight and inexpensive.

The soil is rich alluvial, or made. It produces a bale of cotton per acre, worth $45 to $60. This accounts for its high rental value. Other crops, such as corn, small grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits, thrive as well.

Alfalfa yields 4 to 6 cuttings, a ton to a cutting, and brings $10 to $16 per ton.

In other sections of these states, and in Texas as well, the rolling or hill-land is especially adapted to stock raising and fruit growing. Land is very cheap, $5 to $10 per acre, improved farms $10, $15 to $25 per acre.

The new White River country offers many opportunities for settlers. High, rolling, fine water—it is naturally adapted to stock and fruit raising. Can be bought as low as $3 per acre.

See this great country for yourself and pick out a location. Descriptive literature, with maps, free on request.

The Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain System Lines sell reduced rate round trip tickets on first and third Tuesdays of each month to points in the West and Southwest, good returning 21 days, with stop-overs. For descriptive literature, maps, time tables, etc., write to Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial affections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial affections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backaches, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with Man-Zan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsable tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

For headache, constipation, etc., Dade's Little Liver Pills are the best. They cleanse and tonic the liver. Sold by C. A. Light.

THE sessions of the Senate these days, resemble somewhat the Dowie prayer-meetings.

EVERYTHING continues to indicate that King Alphonso is about to have the time of his life.

JUST to show Senator Foraker that he is utterly friendless in this dark hour, the Cincinnatti Enquirer gives him its triple leaded approval.

THE saloon keepers of California fear that if they are not permitted to reopen soon, their customers will succeed in breaking themselves of the habit.

AN undertaker in a town out West, has opened an automobile agency as a side line thus laying himself open to the suspicion that he is trying to increase his business.

THERE are times when large expenditures of the "coin" to secure votes for a political job signify questionable transactions. It is alright to show the "proper spirit" but under the present primary law how is the fellow going to come out who buys his prestige?

Gallen, Mich.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write. I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

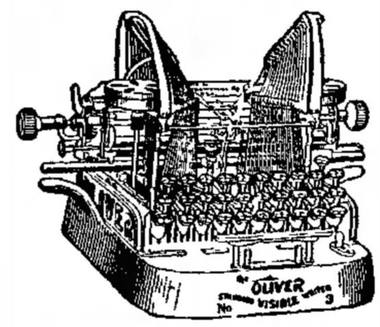
THIS TYPEWRITER DELIVERS THE GOODS

It's the Oliver—the Standard Visible Writer.

The Oliver Typewriter is just like an athletic stripped for a race.



It is free from unnecessary multiplicity of wires and springs

No net work of flimsy keys to get tied into hard knots

The nimble fingered stenographer can put talk into type with this machine just as rapidly as she takes your dictation.

For no matter how swiftly she writes, she can see just what she's doing

The keyboard is so wonderfully responsive to the touch of the finger tips that speed comes without effort.

The factors that make for speed are its visible writing, its light, elastic key-touch, and it's all 'round simplicity. It has the fewest possible wearing points, and it prints with a downward stroke.

The OLIVER Typewriter

is a flawless piece of mechanism, combining the strength of tested steel with the perfect adjustment of the works of a watch. You can use an Oliver a life time and the type will not lose alignment

It never suffers from nervous prostration; requires only a little oil and plenty of exercise to keep it at the highest point of efficiency.

The hum of Oliver Typewriters is heard in the most progressive business houses in the land. Sales increasing at a phenomenal rate. Get acquainted with the Oliver! Write for the Oliver book—we send it free with our compliments.

[Original.]

While spending a summer on Great South bay, which lies between Long Island and Fire island, I hired an old fisherman to take me out in his boat. He was a queer character and told some stories about the early history of Long Island that interested me. He had lived in the same location all his life, and his father, grandfather and great-grandfather before him.

Day after day he sat in the stern with one brown hand on the tiller, the other on the main sheet, reeling off yarns as his little sloop reeled off knots. This is one of them:

"There was a time when piratin' was a much more respectable trade than it is now, and right here the pirates used to come in through the inlets and bury their plunder. They bought a lot o' provisions and such things as they needed, and as they was good pay what few people there was about in them days was very glad to trade with 'em—that is, when they wasn't bent on murder and robbery. One of our family who knowed how to write writ down a good many things in a blank book, and there was a lot in it about the pirates. That's how I got what I'm goin' to tell you.

"One o' the farmers, an old Dutchman, had a farm, or a bowerie, as he called it, about a mile from the house my ancestors built, only nearer the bay. One fall a niece of his'n—I don't remember her name, except the first name was Katrina—come out here from New York to visit her uncle's family. Bein' town bred, she was a leetle too good for the folks about here; in fact, my ancestor, the writer, describes her as a high stepper. She must 'a' been one o' them Vans that has since considered theirselves the big toads in the New York puddle. Anyway, Katrina, though her uncle tried hard to give her a good time, turned up her purty nose at the farmer people. I don't exactly know why, seein' that tillin' o' the soil is as respectable as tradin' in the skins o' wild animals, which her people did.

"Howsomedever, her uncle got up a big dance for her on his bowerie. I think they had to do the dancin' in the barn, seein' there warn't no other place big enough. Katrina, she jist went around with her nose in the air and wouldn't hev no attention from none o' the young farmers, and her uncle come up to her and tole her that she was too high and mighty for the simple folk about here and he'd send her home the next day.

"All of a suddent there was a barkin' o' the dogs and a hollerin' o' the nigger slaves outside, and in another moment in comes a lot o' men in sailor tog, with cutlasses, and one o' 'em with a pair o' mustaches a foot long cries out:

"'All you men git out o' here onless you want to walk a plank from the roof laid over the well!'

"They was pirates that had come in at the inlet and come ashore for amusement and plunder. The farmer men got out mighty quick except the fiddlers, for the chief ordered 'em back. He must 'a' been the cap'n. Then the pirates tole the fiddlers to play, and, goin' up to the women, each cutthroat chose a pardner and swung her off into the dance. The cap'n he spied Katrina settin' dignified and haughty, and when he seen her so the story goes—he made a step aft and put his hand up to his fore'ead like they does in the theater and gasps. Katrina see the cap'n and set bolt upright as though he warn't nothin' to her. Then he walks up to her, sort o' cringin' like, and when he gits where she was he sweeps the floor with his hat and says somep'n' to her so low that nobody couldn't hear it, and she says somep'n' to him, and he says somep'n' more to her, and they kept it up awhile, then she gits up, and he leads her out to dance.

"The chronologer says that they was the highest steppin' pair that ever paced through a dance in the colony, the man and the girl bein' both blue bloods sure. The other women forgot their fright and danced like country jakes, which they was, only they made sneerin' remarks about Katrina, sayin' that now she'd got a pirate they hoped she was satisfied. They wondered what the two had been talkin' about, but Katrina cuda't let on. She jist walked through the dance as poker-like as ever, and the cap'n was as cringin' before her as if she'd been the queen of England. She didn't seem to fear him, and she didn't say nothin' to him. She jist danced as if she was walkin' around with a yaller dog.

"There was jist one dance. Then the cap'n give a signal to leave. The men looked kind o' hard at him and wasn't goin' to go. The cap'n walks up to one on 'em and was bringin' his cutlass down on him when the feller dug out, and the rest follered. The cap'n he went last, and before he did he turned and give Katrina one look. My scribblin' ancestor says it was like the look a man might give his sweetheart jist before he was goin' to be swung off.

"And that was the next thing that happened to the cap'n. A man-o'-war was watchin' for him outside and scooped the whole gang. It turned out that he had been a New York beau, a lover of Katrina's she'd refused, and he'd concluded to live down the blow to them sensitive feelin's o' his'n by turnin' pirate. When he went up to Katrina and asked her to dance she agreed for one dance if he'd promise to git out without taken the valyables or harmin' any one. He promised, and she saved everything and everybody.

"It's gittin' a leetle dirty lookin' out there I guess we'd better go about, and I'll put you ashore."

RUSSELL THORNE.

"The Queen of Sicily."

Syracuse calls itself the capital of the south, but it has no cause to dispute pride of place with Palermo. The metropolitan city is superior in population, wealth and much else, but it is deficient in what its ancient and glorious rival has in such abundance. For Syracuse has the supreme charm of Greece in a way that no other city except Athens has. Not even in Corinth, nowhere in Hellas from Messana or Sparta in the south to Thebes in the north, is there any Hellenic town to compare with "the queen of Sicily." As a sanctuary, Delphi is far more impressive than anything in Sicily, as a national meeting place Olympia has no rival, but nowhere except at Athens is a Greek city to be seen today which has the proud record of the marvelous metropolis of the Sicilian Greeks, a city as great in power and wealth and beauty as Athens herself, and victor at last in the long and fatal rivalry which indirectly involved the passing of the Hellenistic dominion of all the lands washed by the Ionian and Mediterranean seas.—Century.

Barefooted Waiting Maids in Japan.

Unless there are ladies among the guests the wife and daughters of the host do not appear at dinner in Japan. Before the meal begins it is customary for them to bring small cups of tea and dainty confectionery, when they take their survey of the party. If gentlemen only are present the Japanese hostess disappears after the greeting is over and does not return until the guests are taking their departure. At a signal from the host barefooted waiting maids, dressed in graceful and prettily tinted kimonos, bring in lacquer tray, bearing tiny covered bowls. Before setting the trays on the table the maids sink gracefully to their knees and bend forward till their foreheads touch the floor. Then they serve dinner, which is of several courses.—Smith's Weekly.

A Lively Paper Cutter.

Here is a little story which the English papers tell and any one is at liberty to believe if he will. No affidavits go with it. When Lord Dufferin was viceroy of India the maharajah of Indor paid him a visit and asked as a memento an ivory paper cutter belonging to Lord Dufferin. He consented, the Indian left, and the viceroy never saw him until some months later when the maharajah introduced a fine young elephant into the room. A pile of newspapers lay at Lord Dufferin's side. The animal went up to them, cut them neatly with his tusks, which had been purposely sharpened, and laid them in a neat heap on the floor, ready for perusal.

Great Britain's Rainfall.

Rainfall is a condition which has much to do with our health. A wet district with a good deal of subsoil water, making houses damp, is a locality in which rheumatism and consumption are likely to prevail. Over England and Wales the average yearly rainfall is about thirty-four inches, in Scotland it reaches forty-six inches and in Ireland about thirty-eight inches. Possibly the wettest parts of Britain are in Cumberland, where the rainfall may attain 150 inches per year. One inch of rain on one acre of ground means a hundred tons of water.—London Graphic.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute Kidney trouble. Sold by The Avenue Drug Store.

RENT PAYS FOR LAND.

Fertile Sections of the Southwest, Where Land Sells for $15 and Rents for $2 per Acre.

One of the remarkable things about Eastern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana is the fact that cleared land rents for $5 per acre cash, and can be bought for $7.50 to $15 per acre. It costs from $6 to $10 an acre to clear it. Other improvements necessary are slight and inexpensive.

The soil is rich alluvial, or made. It produces a bale of cotton per acre, worth $45 to $60. This accounts for its high rental value. Other crops, such as corn, small grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits, thrive as well.

Alfalfa yields 4 to 6 cuttings, a ton to a cutting, and brings $10 to $16 per ton.

In other sections of these states, and in Texas as well, the rolling or hill-land is especially adapted to stock raising and fruit growing. Land is very cheap, $5 to $10 per acre; improved farms $10, $15 to $25 per acre.

The new White River country offers many opportunities for settlers. High, rolling, fine water—it is naturally adapted to stock and fruit raising. Can be bought as low as $3 per acre.

See this great country for yourself and pick out a location. Descriptive literature, with maps, free on request.

The Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain System Lines sell reduced rate round trip tickets on first and third Tuesdays of each month to points in the West and Southwest, good returning 21 days, with stop-overs. For descriptive literature, maps, time tables, etc., write to Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial effections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial effections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with Man-Zan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light

A FEW SQUIBS.

For the Consideration of the Voters. Shall it be Robbins or Huff?

CONGRESSMAN HUFF'S RECORD.

In 58th and 59th congresses introduced 65 private claim bills and building bills for Greensburg and Butler. Building bills not passed. Answered on 71 out of 118 roll calls. Voted against Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill in 58th and for Hepburn bill in 59th congress. Made remarks on deaths of Runk and Foerderer in 58th. There is no record of him having spoken in congress on any other occasion. Serving his fourth term without credit to his district. Has great wealth, however.

EDWARD E. ROBBINS RECORD.

In state senate introduced and championed bill for free school books. Spoke for larger state appropriations for schools. Advocated many other measures in interest of the public. One term in Congress; made strong speech on Dingley tariff bill, introduced resolution for Independence of Cuba, took active part in all work of the house. Enlisted for the war with Spain. Has a platform of live issues in the interest of the people, and courage and ability to fight for them.

The Jeannette Dispatch says:—Huff's exceptional readiness to respond to every request of constituents has been known and read of all men, and present conditions seem to indicate that he has enough friends in old Westmoreland to look after his interests while at the same time guarding their own.

We submit this for what it is worth. The true situation can be ascertained by coming to Monessen and asking the hundreds of voters in this section. They can tell you about Huff's willingness and promptness to respond to his constituency.

Having "arranged" with the Washington correspondent to send out a story that he could not testify before the inter state commerce commission because speaker Cannon would not excuse him. Congressman Huff hurried home Monday. He was in Jeannette, Manor and Irwin that day. On Tuesday he changed cars at Braddock and went up the Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers, arriving at West Newton, where his friend McWilliams had told him the situation was "bad." Speaker Cannon can apparently give him leave of absence for campaigning, if not to give testimony before a goverment commission.

Col. Huff has not, however, fooled the Westmoreland voters by dodging a subpeona. The testimony of others has been ample to show his relation to the "stock graft" and the extra favors he has received from the railroads He probably deemed the dodging of a subpeona necessary to complete his advent into the Rockefeller class.

While getting lower freight rates than competitors, Huff's Keystone company pays lower wages. At Madison it pays 77 cents a ton for pick mining while the Pittsburg company at the same place pays 90 a ton. Other scale prices in proportion. Huff employs no Union miners not since 1897, when he took out injunctions at Madison and Arona.

August 19, 1897 George F. Huff and Thomas Donehoe gave bond in the sum of $1,000 to take out an injunction against "The United Mine Workers, Independent Knights of Labor, Patrick Dolan, Cameron Miller and other parties at Arona. On September 7 the injunction was granted by Judge Alexander D McConnell, R. Coulter, Jr. Wentling & Miller, Morehead & Head, solicitors for plaintiff. Another injunction was issued for the Madison mines, for Col. Huff. Yet Col. Huff has tried to make a campaign issue of the fact that Hon. E. E. Robbins once acted as attorney in an injunction proceeding.

Coal lands of the Huff company are assessed at $50 to $150 an acre which have cost $500 to $1,000 an acre. Inspection of the books in the court house proves this Improvements are lumped in with acreage of coal and surface. Other coal companies pay on as valuation averaging $27 to $50 an acre higher and have their improvements listed separately.

Farmers have to pay on three-fourths of full valuation. This is the work of Huff's county machine, the product of public honors conferred on Col. Huff. Vote for a square deal on Saturday.

Huff defends unlimited admission of foreigners, including criminals and insane. All who like those things will vote for him.

WORK ON NEW BRIDGE

Is Progressing.--One Pier Already Completed.

The end of this week will see the work on the new bridge from North Charleroi to Monessen practically completed so far as the construction of the pier and pillars for the first approach is concerned

The main pier at the junction of the Pittsburg and Charleroi Street Railway is completed and is a model of masonry and durability. The ground pillars for the structural iron work are all in and the foundation piers for the steps leading from Railroad street and the toll house were finished Monday. This in a measure completes this portion of the iron work, so much so that the engines and derricks have been moved over the river where they will be placed in operation at that point.

It was thought at one time this week that some delay would be caused on the first river pier on account of some misunderstanding relative to placing the pier and guide wall so as to be in accordancewith the plans and specifications as demanded by the U. S. A. Government engineers. The matter was taken up by the parties interested and it a pleasure to note that the matter has been speedily and satisfactorily adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned and the work goes steadily on.

Last evening the large cofferdam surrounding the first river pier on this side was put in place and will soon be ready to pump out. This will give the workmen a chance to get down to the bottom of the excevation as they had already gone as far as the water would permit. This done the piling will next be driven for the concrete bottom.

The piling for the middle pier are all in place and are being sawed off 22 feet under water. Additional engines and derricks are being put in position at the Monessen end of the bridge and in a few days work will be commenced on the shore pier at that point. The large casings for the stone work are complete and ready to drop into place. The stone for the main or middle pier are on the ground and are cut and ready to lay.

Lyman H. Howe's New Pictures.

The extraordinary reputation achieved by Lyman H Howe as a master in the production of moving pictures is an indisputable proof that the program to be given in the opera house tomorrow evening, is one of the highest order. Mr. Howe's exhibitions have now been before the American public for ten years, and during all that time public interest in them has never lagged. On the contrary, the press and public have lauded and admired each reappearance with a greator cordiality and a lustier ring in the applause.

COMMENCEMENT LAST NIGHT.

A Good Program Rendered And Large Crowd in Attendance.

The Commencement exercises of the Monessen High School held at the opera house last night were very largely attended and the program was carried out creditable to every one who took part.

There were three graduates -- Miss Mable Robinson, Emma Morgan and Francis Seanor; all had original orations and delivered them in a creditable manner. Miss Robinson's subject was "Monuments." Francis Seanor spoke on the "Use of Electricity" and Miss Morgan spoke on the "Outlook of the 20th Century Girl."

Prof. John A. Brashear of Allegheny made the address to the graduates taking for his subject "The Worlds Great Workshop." The diplomas were presented by Prof. Himelick of the local schools.

Mary Baker one of the 1904 graduates delivered the class chain. Musical selections were rendered by Charles and Harry Williams, Edna Townsend and Prof. J. H. Adams, Prayer was offered by Rev. J.F. Wright and Rev Maddes The opera house was crowded with people and a great deal of interest was manifested in the entertainment. The stage was tastefully decorated and presented an excellent appearance. Many testimonials have been heard as the work done by the schools the past year and in the manner they were brought to a close.

Notice.

The firemen's picnic which was postponed last Saturday on account of rain will be held tomorrow evening at Electric park.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE

For Assembly on a Popular Platform.
